

Reminders of Him Book Club Questions

1. When we meet Kenna she is just moving into town and we learn right off the bat she had a baby in jail. What were your first impressions of her? Did you feel any empathy in the beginning?
2. Ledger is captivated immediately by Kenna. Do you think that some people with shared histories are just drawn together? Or was he just seeing a pretty girl?
3. Ledger is a big part of Diem's life and has been from the beginning. What were your thoughts early on how Scotty's family was choosing to raise Diem away from her mother? Did you understand it, or would you have done things differently?
4. Colleen Hoover goes a lot into how hard a time Kenna has getting a fresh start in life after jail because of the biases against parolees. Did the book bring up any thoughts on how that system works today?
5. Which character did you feel the most empathy for? Why?
6. Ledger and Kenna keep the beginnings of their attraction to each other a secret from most other people. Do you feel this was the only way to handle things? The best way?
7. How believable did the plot feel to you? What about the happy ending?
8. If you could ask the characters or author any question, what would it be?
9. How did you feel overall reading this book? Did it bother you, encourage you, frustrate you? Did you feel the same at the end as you did in the first few chapters?
10. How long did it take you get through the book? Was it one you couldn't put down or you had to keep coming back to?
11. Have you read other books by Colleen Hoover? Is there anything similar in themes or writing style in this book compared to her others? Did you like this one more or less?
